Update on PhD Scholarship Applications

Dear Applicants,

Thank you for your recent submission of the PhD scholarship application. We greatly appreciate the time and effort you invested in your application.

We are pleased to inform you that we received more than 140 applications for a total of 16 scholarship slots. Evidently, the competition is quite strong, and only about 10% of all applicants will be successful.

The selection process is currently underway. Shortlisted candidates will be contacted for interviews during the week of 24th March 2025.

Please note that only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

The applicants' selection process is expected to be concluded by first week of April 2025.

For those who may not be shortlisted this time, we want to encourage you to remain positive. Your efforts and dedication are commendable, and we believe your research ideas have great potential. We encourage you to refine your concept notes and continue pursuing your research goals. There are many opportunities available, and we hope you will find the perfect fit for your innovative ideas.

Thank you once again for your interest and effort. We wish you the best in your academic and professional endeavors.

Best regards,

Dr. Kasusu Klint Nyamuryekung'e

Coordinator, Strategic Research and Implementation Projects
