

CONSULTANCY WORKSHOP

The Office of Directorate of Research, Publication and Innovation (DRPI) realizes the practical challenges of applying for consultancy opportunities. It has come up with this one-week workshop designed to Equip MUHAS staff with skills and competencies needed to prepare competitive and winnable consultancy proposals. It will further be helpful to help MUHAS future consultants in implementing consultancies in line with institutional and national regulations.

The workshop has the following objectives:

- i. To understand different components of the consultancy policy and its guidelines
- ii. To strengthen the capacity of faculty on how to write competitive consultancy proposals
- iii. To provide awareness on how to negotiate consultancy projects
- iv. To provide knowledge on how to implement the projects
- v. To provide knowledge so the faculties can be able to compete nationally and internationally

Eligibility: All MUHAS faculty members are eligible to apply (Only 40 slots are available)

Location: MUHAS at CHPE building

Mode of Delivery: In Person (Interactive, Hands-On Sessions)

Fees: Free for MUHAS faculty

Facilitators: Faculty from MUHAS will facilitate the course

Upon completion of this workshop, the participants will be competent enough to apply for consultancy.
