CALL FOR INVESTORS

POTENTIAL INVESTORS FOR DEVELOPMENT OF MUHAS STRATEGIC LAND ASSETS UNDER PUBLIC – PRIVATE PARTNERSHIP (PPP) ARRANGEMENTS

1. INTRODUCTION

Muhimbili University of Health and Allied Sciences (MUHAS) is a Public Institution established under the Muhimbili University of Health and Allied Sciences Charter and is Tanzania's leading institution in health sciences education, research, innovation, and specialized healthcare training. The University operates across multiple campuses and strategic locations within Tanzania and continues to expand its academic, research, healthcare, and institutional infrastructure in response to growing national and international demand.

As part of its strategic agenda towards institutional sustainability, enhanced asset utilization, and diversification of revenue sources, MUHAS has identified several strategic land assets for investment and development through structured partnerships with the private sector. The identified land parcels are located in high-potential urban and growth areas including Upanga and Mbagala.

The proposed developments are expected to generate sustainable long-term revenue for the University and investors, stimulate economic activities, create employment opportunities, support business growth, improve service availability, and contribute to broader national development objectives.

Pursuant to the Public-Private Partnership (PPP) Act, Cap. 103 (Revised 2023), Public-Private Partnership Regulations, 2020 [as amended in 2023], and Treasury Registrar Circular No. 1 of 2023, MUHAS hereby invites interested investors, developers, financial institutions, and strategic partners to express interest in one or multiple investment opportunities under PPP, Joint Venture, Lease Concession, and other structured investment arrangements.

2. STRATEGIC LAND ASSETS FOR INVESTMENT

MUHAS has identified the following strategic land assets with significant investment potential for development under PPP and related investment arrangements:

Table 1: Strategic Investment Opportunities
